

Prepositions to show places

www.Ublearner.com

The library is just across the road.

here is a small house just across the river.

We walked across the bridge.

We walked along the beach watching the sunset.

Cars were parked all along the street.

Somewhere along this road there's a cafe.

She planted rose bushes along the length of the garden.

Rescue teams searched among the wreckage for survivors.

She felt lonely among all these strange people.

a decision that has caused a lot of anger among staffs

The cost should be shared equally among the three of you.

That bit at the beginning of the film was brilliant.

There's someone at the door.

She works on the reception at the supermarket.

I always like to leave my desk clear at the end of the day.

She smiled at me.

www.ublearner.com

I'm not much good at cooking.

www.ublearner.com

I'll meet you at the mall at 6:45 evening.

www.ublearner.com

She could no longer contain her anger and shouted at him uncontrollably.

www.ublearner.com

www.ublearner.com

www.ublearner.com

He was standing next to me at the train station.

Can I sit next to the window?

All the berries had dropped off the tree.

How far off finishing the project are we?

He fell off his bike.

I hope she knows where to get off the bus.

They walked slowly through the woods.

Her memories kept running through my mind.

Our new sofa doesn't fit through the door.

Any questions?

You can find us at:

@UBLearner_Sahar

@English_tree

<https://t.me/ublearner>

Thanks...

